5th Sunday of Great Lent: St Mary of Egypt

Troparion — Tone 8

The image of God was truly preserved in you, O mother, for you took up the Cross and followed Christ. By so doing, you taught us to disregard the flesh, for it passes away, but to care instead for the soul, since it is immortal. Therefore your spirit, O holy mother Mary, Rejoices with the angels!

Kontakion — Tone 3

Having been a sinful woman, you became through repentance a Bride of Christ. Having attained angelic life, you defeated demons with the weapon of the Cross. Therefore, most glorious Mary, you are a Bride of the Kingdom!

Teaching: "Where shall I begin to weep for the actions of my wretched life? What first-fruit shall I offer, O Christ, in this my lamentation? But in Thy compassion grant me forgiveness of sins." (The Canon of St. Andrew, Canticle 1, vs. 2.)

During Great Lent we remember and venerate Saint Mary of Egypt both on April 1 and the Fifth Sunday of Lent. With the Canon of St. Andrew, read in many churches during the first and fifth weeks of Lent, we uphold her as an icon of repentance, an example for every Orthodox Christian to emulate. Yet for many years, she lived a life of bondage to passions. If St. Mary of Egypt were alive today, would we welcome her into our assembly?

While we don't know about the very early years of her life, we do know that she lost her virginity at age twelve and ran away from home. For the next seventeen years she was a slave to her insatiable appetite[s].

For seventeen years, Saint Mary of Egypt lived a lifestyle that isolated her from the community and God. Covered with filth amassed over the years, her heart yet longed for union with God.

The healing of the venerable Saint Mary of Egypt was not instantaneous but required a rigorous and lengthy spiritual journey. Being led by the Holy Spirit, she retreated to the wilderness where she lived the life of a hermit for seventeen years, seeking freedom from bondage of the passions. She spent a further thirty years in the wilderness having obtained the true gifts of repentance, healing and freedom from the enslavement of sin.

During Great Lent, each of us seeks repentance, turning from our own vices and passions and setting our minds and hearts on God. Through the intercessions of the most Holy Theotokos, God grants us the gift of compunction to turn from our wounds and sins to find healing and comfort in Him.

Let us remember Saint Mary of Egypt and her wonderful redemption. During the remainder of this Lenten journey, may we pray to be freed from our imprisonment to the passions that enslave us.

"As a handful of sand thrown into the ocean, so are the sins of all flesh as compared with the mind of God. Just as a strongly flowing fountain is not blocked up by a handful of earth, so the compassion of the Creator is not overcome by the wickedness of His creatures."

THANK YOU to Lisa Olszowy for hosting last Sunday's Coffee Hour. Many Years,

THANK YOU to Fred Marcinkowski for designing and building new bookcases for the choir loft.

THANK YOU to Eileen Soliman and her team (Amal Morcos, Marian Babiak, Lisa Lewis, Jill Williams and family, Bill Cullinan, Andy Nosal) for cleaning the interior of the church last Saturday.

THANK YOU to Peter Dardaganis and his team (Joe Ryerson, Kaha Kvachatdze, David Morris, Austin Guarisco, John Babiak, Tom Smock, Fred Marcinkowski, Viktor Joganow, and Patty Kaufman) for spreading 15 cubic yards of mulch, prepping the church doors, painting the new bookcases, and prepping the garden.

CHURCH SPRING CLEAN-UP - On April 20th there will be another clean-up of the exterior of the church and grounds. Remaining tasks are: finish spreading mulch, staining the bell tower, painting the church doors, and more gardening work. Work will begin at 9:00 a.m. See Peter Dardaganis on Sunday for more info or email pdardaganis1@gmail.com

COMBINED PRESANCTIFIED LITURGY - On Wednesday, April 24th at 6:00pm we will be hosting this service and the repast afterward, inviting other area Orthodox parishes to join us in worship. There will be no private confessions that evening. A sign-up sheet will be provided in the narthex for people to bring something or to help clean up.

LENTEN MISSION VESPERS will be celebrated by His Eminence Archbishop Michael and area clergy on Sunday, April 21st at 5:00 p.m. at Holy Resurrection Church in Wayne, NJ. Responses will be sung by the Spirit of Orthodoxy Choir. All are invited to attend. Flyer:
